Lester Stanfill Award Nomination Form

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:
The Lester Stanfill Award is presented to an ICRID member who has unselfishly dedicated his/her talents, energy, and self to the field of interpreting. This individual has made a significant contribution to ICRID throughout the years and continues to support the organization. This individual is recognized as a leader in the interpreting community. This award is the most prestigious award offered by ICRID.

REQUIREMENTS FOR AWARD:
1. Any ICRID member may nominate another ICRID member for this award.
2. The nominee must be a member in good standing with both ICRID and RID.
3. Nomination forms must be submitted to the ICRID Board six (6) weeks prior to the ICRID annual conference for consideration.
4. Nomination forms will be presented through the ICRID newsletter.
5. The ICRID board will select the winner by unanimous vote. The nominee must receive total board approval.
6. In case of tie, the ICRID President will select the award winner.
7. The award will be presented at the ICRID annual conference (when applicable).

Person making Nomination:_____

Person being Nominated:_____

Please explain how the nominee has unselfishly dedicated his/her talents, energy, and self to the field of interpreting. What contributions have they made to ICRID and the interpreting community?

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

Nominations are due to the awards and scholarship committee by September 20th, 2020.
Email nomination form to awards@icrid.org

_____

Committee use only:
Nominee an ICRID member? Yes No Person nominating an ICRID member? Yes No